MUNICIPALITY OF THE COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND

Position Description

Teen Centre Coordinator Casual
HR & Community Facilities Department

Overview

This position serves the recreational needs of the teen youth of Cumberland County and provides programming and services consistent with community objectives. The Teen Centre Coordinator is responsible to supervise and coordinate Teen Centre activities in a safe and controlled environment with a focus on youth at risk. The Coordinator also participates in the planning and executing events, services, and programs both in the Teen Centre and in and around the Community Centre in general.

Background to the position and initiative: Following the collapse of the Springhill Arena in 2001, the community planned to replace the Arena with a Community Centre that would be an excellent resource for a wide range of recreational and social needs. A major need identified was a safe, positive place for teenagers during the “critical” evening hours (6:00 – 9:00pm). The community decided to meet this need. In 2004 and 2005 the Dr. Carson & Marion Murray Community Centre, including the Ross Anderson Pharmasave Teen Centre, was constructed and opened its doors.

The Teen Centre plays an important role in engaging youth in Cumberland County and promoting healthy social and physical activities.

This position reports to the Manager of Recreation Programs and Services.

Behavioral Competencies
